to the first, if you do not, that, there just wouldn't be a magazine. We certainly don't demand useless, literary essays.

With regard to the second possible objection it must be pointed out that since this is our first magazine, articles may be written retrospectively to the period wherein the club was founded. So you can see there's plenty of scope.

The main requirement is that the articles be of general interest. There is no limitation to the number of articles you may submit. LET'S HAVE THEM.
