Vice President		Raoul Mellish
Gen. Secretary		Rosemary O'Brien	56 5646
Outings Secretary		Vince Maume	79 3242
Treasurer		Col McLellan	56 3972
Outings Recorder		John Power	56 4247
Social Committee		Mary Hutchins	95 2454

Monthly meeting on Thursday 15th January will feature slides of outings during 1958.

WEEKEND OUTING - O'REILLYS GREEN MTS. Jan. 23rd to 26th 1959.

Nominations closing date 15/1/1959. Fare £1/10/-.

Leader:- Vince Maume

Departure Point:- Greyhound Bus Depot 6.30 p.m.

It is exactly a year since our first weekend outing last year and this was to O'Reillys with new members who are now foundation members of the Club.

We feel it fitting therefore, that we are going back again on the Foundation Day week-end.

There will be the usual full day outing on the Saturday on one of the graded tracks and on the Sunday the outing may be arranged to suit particular tastes in order to allow smaller parties to visit different places.

Fr. Hayes will be up on Sunday afternoon to say the evening Mass which will be at approximately 4.30 p.m.

Rumours have it that there will be a bushwalkers get-together at the Guest House on the Sunday evening and many will remember the excellent acts put on last year.

Bring along your musical instruments, double bass, gum leaf etc.

SOCIAL OUTINGS.

Beat the heat and come to YOUNG'S CROSSING on SATURDAY 7th FEBRUARY for a combined swim and barbecue. An Oxley bus has been hired and will leave from ANZAC SQUARE, ADELAIDE STREET at 1.30 p.m. The bus will return from the Crossing leaving at 10.0 p.m. The charge will be 5/-d. for those travelling by bus and 2/6d. for those going by private transport. Bring your own meat and cats and milk and sugar. Tea will be provided. It would be advisable to take along some mosquito repellent, too. Nomination forms, which are at the end of the circular, must be with Mary Hutchins by 23rd January.

If you want to get rich the quick, easy way keep Tuesday 17th March free for a casino evening featuring games etc. at St. James School, The Valley. Supper, of course, will be provided. More details in next circular.
