EDITORIAL.

"Another opening, Another Show;".... So ran the opening lines of Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" and the sentiments could likewise apply to the Club on the brink of another Club year. Your new office bearers are brimful of ideas and enthusiasm and their bashful and blushing identities can be discovered by perusing the second paragraph of this issue. The four valiant Committee members are Bernice Caffery, Sherry Sawarde, Peter Murphy and Merv. Galvin. Your new Outings Committee consists of Jim Collins, Mary Leahy, Lyle Cook and Col. McLellan with Father Aspinall and Kath Clancy ex officio members. (Perry Mason fans will know that "ex officio" means "by virtue of one's office.") Sherry Sawarde is the lucky new Social Secretary. Our only requisites now are busloads of happy bushwalkers, socials of happy people, meetings of many orators (with laryngitis,) and a year full of fine weekends.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE NOW DUE.

Yes, indeed, they are due again. The subscription stands at ten shillings for single members and fifteen shillings for married couples. Prevent extra work for your Treasurer and Committee and send your remittance in now.

DAY WALK SAMFORD TO STRATHPINE - SUNDAY MAY 27TH. Don't forget that the bus leaves Anzac Square (Adelaide Street) at 9 a.m. There may be a few seats left but nominations of 10/- closed May 21st. Leader Bob Chinn.

NEW MEMBER'S NIGHT - THURSDAY MAY 31ST. Another introductory night will be held at the Y.C.W. Room, Hibernian Building, Adelaide Street, on this night at 8 p.m. Once again the whole evening will be devoted to helping new members. prospective members and just plain curious people appreciate our way of life. There will be no suggestion of obligation of joining the club. Colour slides will demonstrate all phases of bushwalking activity and questions will be answered on any worries. Vince Maume and Col. McLellan will be the targets for the questioners.

WEEKEND TRIP TO MOUNT ERNEST - JUNE 8/10TH. Base Camp and Through Walk.

Nominations of 30/- to reach Club Box by Friday June 1st. Bus leaves Redline Depot on the Friday at 6.30p.m. (Tamborine Bus) and Leaders are Jim Collins for Base Camp (56.4279) and Barry Ferro (97.4277) for through walk.

Mount Ernest rises to 2,455ft. and is situated immediately between Barney and Lindsay. It is on Ernest that the Logan River is formed and Cronan's Creek also flows between Barney and Ernest to join the Logan immediately to the east of Ernest. The normal ascent of the mountain is made up a spectacular razor back near the Cronan Creek junction and the views obtained from the summit are truly spectacular. To the north and south rise the two giants and the mass of Ballow is visible to the west. Looking eastward over Campbell's Folly the main MacPherson Ranges stand out with O'Reilly's Guesthouse visible on a fine day. The camp site will be situated on a very beautiful stretch of the Logan River.

The Through walkers will be taken to the Border Gate and will climb Ernest on the Saturday. They will probably have time to attempt Campbell's Folly also, and will then follow the river downstream and will meet the bus some miles downstream on the Sunday. The base campers will visit Campbell's Folly on the Sunday as this is a short climb from the camp site. Several caves and orchid grottoes are accessible from the top of this mountain.

People who consider that they have seen Barney and Lindsay in all their imposing grandeur must surely scale Ernest before they can make this statement with real confidence and we hope that all will take advantage of this trip. Bring water bottles as the mountain is quite dry.

Contact Officer for this trip is Byron Moss (89.1313). A contact Officer should not be approached for details of a coming trip. The idea is that parents be informed of the contact officer immediately before the trip commences so that in the event of the party being delayed overnight or for some hours, the parents could check with the Contact Officer. The Leader would always let him be the first person to know of any delay or reason for late coming.

DAY WALK TO MT. WALKER - SUNDAY JUNE 17TH. Nominations of 15/- to Club Box by June 8th. Bus leaves Anzac Square (Adelaide Street) at 9.0a.m. Leader Peter Murphy.

"The summit of the mountain presents a narrow level ridge which contracts northerly until it becomes a sharp ledge of rocks having on its eastern and western sides precipitous falls of 200 feet." So wrote Alan Cunningham of his ascent of Mt. Walker on August 25th. 1828. At that time it was known as Mt. Forbes, so named by John Oxley on his 1824 voyage up the Brisbane River.

Mt. Walker is situated west of Flinders Peak and east of the Little Liverpool Range and divides the waters of the Bremer River and Worrell Creek. Rising to 1,540 feet, it is neither a difficult nor arduous ascent. It gives spectacular views of the Great Divide, the MacPhersons, the D'aguiar and the Teviot Ranges and the picturesque Fassifern farming districts in the foreground. This is a day walk that takes in normal week-end country and with Flinders Peak is probably the best vantage point in the area. Bring full water bottles and bring them early to allow a punctual start to be made as there is so much to see on this trip.

MONTHLY GENERAL MEETING - MONDAY JUNE 18TH. TEMPERANCE HALL. The guest Speaker will be Father McEvoy O.P. who will address us on the Shroud of Turin. Father McEvoy is a noted authority on the Holy Shroud and as the history of the Shroud is particularly fascinating and the Shroud itself so significant, a large roll-up is certain to eventuate.

NEWS AND VIEWS AND ECHOES FROM THE HILLS. Wedding Bells ringing merrily for Ernie Lythall and Jan McIntyre and Gerry Peters and Marian McVeigh; best wishes from all the Club to happy couples - Adrian Draney just returned from fast trip to Ayers Rock - Vince Laume and Peter Lillis prominent in recent Passion Play at Milton - Rita Byrne now sojourning in Adelaide - Joan Buckley returned from Melbourne and on way to Mundubbera - Club Choir receiving many back pats for singing at Annual Mass - Red faced parents hard put to restrain infant from joining in hymns at aforesaid Club Mass - New Treasurer Lyle Cook anxious to sell song books for 2. 0, metal badges for 4. 6 and stencilled badges for 6. 6. Mary Leahy in charge of girl's retreat will collect 10. 0 deposit from participants at June meeting.
