As originally planned by Field Marshall Sir Fearless Fred, this campaign for the conquest of Ballow was to commence with a stealthy night march on Grace's Hut - under cover of the full moon. The next morning, a lightning thrust on Montserrat Lookout, then an assault on Focal Peak which would establish a beachhead on the main region of Ballow. After a further forced march the troops would then bivouac the night on Double Peak.

The last day of the campaign would see a final assault launched on Ballow, with the seizure of Junction Peak being the high point of the campaign.

Finally, mopping-up operations would see the troops climbing up Minnages Mountain and then returning to base on Burnett Creek.

However Field Marshall Sir Fearless Fred has been overthrown by a comp d'otop, and the commander in charge of operations will now be Colonel Gilby. The major part of the campaign will be the same except for the final mopping up operations, as the base will no longer be on Burnett Creek but at Grace's Hut.

As we go to press we do not know the details of the final stages of the campaign. We would suggest that if you want to find out go on manouvers with Colonel Gilby or else stay at base with Flight Lieutenant Brian McMahon.

Mt Alexander is a spur reaching out into the Kerry Valley from Lamington Plateau. Depending on the transport arrangements it is hoped to do this trip in throughwalk style.

It is proposed to follow the old Kerry Track up Stockyard Creek nearly to the Dump, then up the ridge on the Lost World side onto Mt. Alexander itself. It is then proposed to travel along the top of Mt Alexander and down over the end to the Albert River.

FULL WATER-BOTTLES are essential for this trip.

LONG WEEKEND 12-15th June 1970 FARE $5.00
Base Camp/Throughwalk - Tweed Pinnacle
Throughwalk - Paul Tracey Base Camp ???
Transport Base Camp from North Quay (behind Trittons)
at 7.00p.m. Throughwalk - see below.
Nominations close on Monday 8th June 1970.
Emergency Officer Michael Laherty 976303

Here is the mystery trip of the year. Are the throughwalkers going down on the interstate goods train, or will they be hobnobbing with the basecampers and camping in the Tweed Valley near the pinnacle?

For the next exciting episode, go on the trip.

For the throughwalkers, the trip will most probably start from the Wiangaree side; in this case transport down will be by interstate goods train.

If the worst comes to the worst (and this means, essentially, no priest on either the base camp or the throughwalk), the throughwalkers and the basecampers will camp in the Tweed Valley near Tweed Pinnacle on Friday night, with the throughwalkers doing a two-day round trip commencing from the base camp. Also, if there is no priest Mass will have to be attended in Tyalgum or Murwillumbah.

All those going on the throughwalk must indicate this on their nomination form, otherwise it will be assumed they are base camping.

The following trips are proposed for the coming six months:-

12-15th June 1970	Tweed Pinnacle	Base Camp	Throughwalk
28th June 1970	Ivory's Rock/Goolman	-	Daywalk
3-5th July 1970	Mistake Range	-	Base Camp
17-19th July 1970	Retreat		Base Camp
31st July/1st Aug.	The Steamers	-	Base Camp
11-12th August 1970	Barney Mass		Base Camp
23rd August 1970	Mt. Samson		Daywalk
28th Aug/1st Sep.	O'Reilly's		Base Camp
11-13th Sept. 1970	Barney Pilgrimage		Base Camp
26-27th Sept. 1970	Mt. Moon	OVERNIGHT	Day walk
9-11th October 1970	Goomburra Valley		Base Camp
15th Nov. 1970	Beau Brummell		Daywalk
